Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally recommend WU Jiaqian (Grace) for professional opportunities within your organization. Grace served as an intern with the Hong Kong Professional Airline Pilots Association (HKPAPA) from November 2025 to February 2026. During her time with us, she distinguished herself as a highly capable and disciplined professional, consistently delivering results that met the rigorous standards of the aviation industry.

Grace was a vital asset to our communications and outreach efforts. She took the lead on designing a wide array of promotional flyers and digital assets for our pilot training programs and member seminars. Her ability to synthesize complex aviation concepts into clean, professional, and engaging visual layouts was exceptional. Furthermore, her proficiency in translation was indispensable. She handled the conversion of technical documents and association correspondence with a high degree of precision, ensuring that our messaging remained accurate and authoritative for our bilingual community of pilots and aviation professionals.

Beyond her creative and linguistic skills, Grace demonstrated a strong aptitude for coordination and research. She also assisted in organizing data for our educational initiatives, showing an analytical mindset and an attention to detail that are essential for success in this industry.

Grace is a proactive, collaborative, and reliable team member who approaches every task with a genuine commitment to excellence. Her interpersonal skills allowed her to interface effectively with our volunteer captains and industry stakeholders, representing HKPAPA with maturity and poise. I am confident that the unique combination of technical design talent, linguistic precision, and administrative diligence she developed here will make her an invaluable asset to any team.

I give her my highest recommendation without reservation. Please feel free to contact me if you require further information regarding her performance.

Yours Sincerely,
